

Scott Binder

Senior Vice President, Comcast

DPS Foundation board member since June 2006

Mr. Binder is Regional Senior Vice President for Comcast in the Colorado Market. He is responsible for all aspects of the company's cable operations in Colorado, serving 800,000 customers and 2500 employees.

Binder has been a cable operations leader for more than 16 years, managing cable systems all across the country. Prior to coming to Colorado, he served as Regional Senior Vice President for the Bay Area, where he served 750,000 customers and nearly 2,000 employees.

Binder has previously served in management with Comcast in Colorado, New Mexico and Arizona. For 10 years, he worked with Time Warner in Kentucky, California and Wisconsin. He began his career as a CPA in the Denver area. He is a graduate of the University of Nebraska and is on the boards of the Denver Metro Chamber of Commerce, the Metro Denver Sports Commission, and is the President of the Colorado Cable Television Association.

On the personal side, Binder stays active outside of work. He has participated in three Hawaiian Ironman competitions and multiple competitive cross-country skiing races. Binder and his wife both began their careers in Colorado. After a number of moves around the country, he, his wife and three children are very glad to be back in Colorado.
