

Christy Crase

Senior Vice President and General Counsel of Professional Case Management

Christy Crase recently became the Senior Vice President and General Counsel of Professional Case Management in Denver, Colorado. Prior to that, Christy served for eleven years in the dialysis industry as Associate General Counsel of Payor and Commercial Contracting at DaVita, Senior Counsel for the Baxter Gambro Renal division of Baxter International, and Vice President and Deputy General Counsel for the Americas region at Gambro Renal Products, Inc. Christy also served the Associate General Counsel for Washington Group International, where she negotiated public and private engineering, construction, design, energy and mining contracts. Christy began her law practice as an Associate in the Mergers and Acquisitions group at Jones Day in Dallas, Texas. In 2000, she moved back to Colorado and joined Holland & Hart's Securities and Corporate Transactions Group. Christy grew up in Colorado and enjoys skiing, biking, running and ballet. She and her husband, Scott Crase, have two daughters both of whom have attended schools in the DPS system, including East High School, Denver School of the Arts, and the HGT program at Carson Elementary and Morey Middle School.

