

DPS Foundation Update on New CEO Search

On Thursday, Sept. 3, 2015, Denver Public Schools and the DPS Foundation announced that President and CEO Kristin Colon had accepted a leadership role with Colorado Mountain College and would be leaving the DPS Foundation later in the semester. Colon's last day with the DPS Foundation will be Friday, Dec. 11, 2015.

The DPS Foundation Board of Directors has established a hiring committee to identify the organization's next leader, and the application and interview process is currently underway. DPS Foundation Vice President of Development Karen Radman has graciously accepted the role of Interim CEO, effective Monday, Dec. 14. Radman will resume her position as VP of Development upon hiring of the new CEO.

We will continue to keep our community updated on developments in the new CEO search.