

I GIVE FOR TEAM DPS

EMPLOYEE GIVING CAMPAIGN

DENVER PUBLIC SCHOOLS DEPENDS ON ALL OF US. EVERY DOLLAR COUNTS.

Thanks to your support, 456 more students graduated in 2018 than 2017, and graduation rates have doubled in the past decade for African American and Latino students.

Together, we can help all students graduate ready to lead a successful life.

With nearly 200 schools and more than 90,000 students, Denver Public Schools needs your help to empower future leaders and support the next generation who will be the workforce for our community. Your support can help ensure Every Child Succeeds.

“I GIVE FOR TEAM DPS BECAUSE...

I see the need to be active. I am a current DPS employee and I actively participate when opportunities arrive. I am connected because students of color may benefit from seeing someone like them, making a decision to give back and participate in their learning journey.”

Director of GED at Emily Griffith High School
