Katie joined the DPS Foundation in June 2017 as the School Partners Program Manager. Katie brings experience managing community and school partnerships within multiple school districts as manager of the Smart-Girl Program at AllHealth Network. She believes strongly in the power of mentoring and community partnerships to aid in the success of students.

Prior to that she worked with the Women’s Foundation of Colorado, serving as Interim Manager of Community Investments and Initiatives. She brings a passion for connecting support with need to better the lives of community members.

Katie holds a Masters in International Administration from the University of Denver with a focus on gender, economics and development and is a Returned Peace Corps Volunteer. Katie, her husband Dan, and their baby daughter Reggie live in Denver and enjoy exploring the many parks and restaurants in the city!

I’m Katie, I’m from Laramie, Wyoming and I play for Team DPS because I believe that in order to ensure our great city’s future, we need to ensure a great education is accessible for all our students.
