

Ruth Rohs

Vice President of Corporate Communications/Executive Director IMA Foundation, IMA Financial Group

Ruth Rohs is the senior vice president of corporate communications and executive director of the IMA Foundation for the IMA Financial Group. In this position, Ruth oversees internal communications, public relations, diversity & inclusion and corporate social responsibility for IMA and its five subsidiaries in Colorado, Kansas, Michigan and Texas. Prior to joining IMA in May 2011, Ruth was the manager of community relations for Comcast Mile High Region. She is a graduate of the University of Alabama and has a Master's degree from Chapman University. She also received a certificate in corporate community involvement management from the Boston College Center for Corporate Citizenship.

Ruth currently serves on the boards of the Denver Public Schools Foundation and is Chair of the Denver Chamber Leadership Foundation. She also served on the boards of B:CIVIC, Colorado Association of Funders and the American Red Cross Mile High Chapter. Ruth completed the Colorado Governor's Fellowship Program in 2018, is a 2006 graduate of Leadership Denver and a 2012 graduate of the Downtown Denver Partnership Leadership Program. In 2007, she was selected as one of Denver's Forty Under 40 by the Denver Business Journal. In 2012, Ruth was honored with the Betsy Bernard Emerging Leader award from the Women's Vision Foundation and in 2018 was named one of Colorado's Top 25 Most Powerful Women by the Colorado Women's Chamber of Commerce.